Summary: (machine translated)
Rappel canyon, mostly dry

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
From Huesca 7km on the N 240 in the direction of Lleida, Barbastro; here turn left, past Loporzano and over Barluenga, partly on newly developed road in the direction of San Julian de Banzo. At the first houses, the road curves to the right and returns to its pre-expansion state. A little later it crosses the valley floor in a sharp left turn. About 20 m after the bend, follow the signs 'Val d'Onsera' - 'Hermitage ...' on dirt roads northward again to the designated parking area.

Approach: (machine translated)
From the parking lot, follow the signpost to Val d'Onsera. When you reach the streambed beyond, leave the beaten path and follow the cairns and tracks that go up the slope on the left evenly and only slightly. They move away from the Val d'Onsera very slowly and remain well below the ridge for about 40 minutes. Only late do they lead to the ridge next to the Lenases. On this ridge you climb until at about 1130 m a.s.l. a descent into the canyon opens up. Sense of orientation required.

Tour: (machine translated)
Beautiful conglomerate canyon, not too narrow, but especially recommended when water is flowing. 26 rappels, hardly any runs.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last short rappel, you reach the streambed of the Bco. that ends here. San Martin. Down the stream you follow it, later rejoining the footpath that leads back to the car.

Automatisch importiert von Descente-Canyon.com für Canyon Lenases Approche dure sousle soleil, sortie avec Olive38 et Tiburce.Il se peut qu'il y ait un autre chemin d'approche que celui indiqué par Olive, directement en face derriere les plates-formes rocheuses et qui correspondrait plus au topo mais on ne l'a pas testé.Le petit filet d'eau rendait le cailloux très glissant dans le lit des cascade.
