Summary: (machine translated)
Long canyon in its route if we want to make it complete, the interesting part is in the area of Tirma where we will find its rappels, under the Lomo de los Chochos. Once we pass the Chocillas we will arrive at the road where we will leave, to continue does not contribute great thing.
Perfect to combine with the rest of ravines of the zone.

Hydrology:
No

Access: (machine translated)
Bcos El Risco area
We have to be located in the NW of the island, next to the Natural Park of Tamadaba, in the town of El Risco.
Location of Berros, Corralete and Cho Ildefonso banks.
We will go by the GC2 until El Risco where we will take the GC200 southbound until p.k. 19,6. 19,6, after passing the Berros reservoir curves, we have the Tirma track on the left. We will go up with the vehicle until the colladete, if we can we could go with the vehicle for 1 km more.
The return vehicle we leave it in the GC200, before the p.k. 16, just at the exit of Choque de Tirma. 16, just at the Cho Ildefonso exit.

Approach: (machine translated)
Situation bcos Corralete, Cha Catalina, Cho Ildefonso...
The access is simple from the hill the first stream is Corralete, the following one would be Carreño, we will pass by the track the following stream and the Lomo de los Alemanes to arrive to the Lomo de los Chochos by which we will go down until we find our head.
