Specialities:
Gear:
Summary: (machine translated) Watery and rocky tour with the 50m high tourist Lessern waterfall as the high point and end point.
Hydrology:
Access: (machine translated) In Trautenfels drive in the direction of Tauplitz, park in Lessern (signposted: waterfall).  If you have two cars: continue to Tauplitz, then turn off in the direction of Wörschachwald. The road leads along above the canyon - turn off at the first road leading down into the ditch and park near the bridge.
Approach: (machine translated) From Lessern, follow the marked hiking trail in the direction of Wörschachwald. When the path meets a road crossing after a longer ascent, follow it to the left to the Mühlbach stream. You can get in at the bridge, but there are also climbing tracks that lead directly to the start of the waterfalls (seen from the stream)
Tour: (machine translated) Initially a long hiking route with small slides and possible jumps. This is followed by three abseiling points (10m, 25m, 50m), each with walking passages in between. Above the abseiling points are fragile steep slopes - danger of falling rocks.
Return: (machine translated) Via the trail secured with wooden planks and steel cable - alternatively you can stay in the streambed.
