Summary: (machine translated)

Parallel to Archifira, it is much shorter and more accessible, in addition it has longer verticals and fewer climbs between them, although it is also quite dressed. Generally dry, if we catch it after rains it will gain a lot.

The bank belongs to the Natural Monument of the Barranco de Fasnía and Güimar, you have to ask for permission in the Cabildo.

Hydrology:

Sí

Access: (machine translated)

Bcos Escobonal area

We have to be located by the TF28 between Fasnía and El Escobonal.

Accesses to Cano and Archifira Banks

Just in the pk. 39,5 in direction El Escobonal is the bridge over the Herques river, past we have the tunnel and to the right place to park the return vehicle.

Accesses to Cano and Archifira Banks

We go back to p.k. 40 where we will find the detour to the right to Archifira. After 4 kilometers on this road (we will take all the detours to the right) we will arrive at the head of Bco Cano, after the bridge there is a place to park.

Approach: (machine translated)

Evident, you just have to go down to the riverbed.

Tour: (machine translated)

See mole.

Long routes between rappels and many areas of chaos or vegetation that will slow us down.

Return: (machine translated)

After the last rappel we leave by it towards the Cercado de la Viña Gallery, from here we will take the track that takes us to Aguerche and continues to the road, just above the tunnel.
