Summary: (machine translated) Also known as del Rio, it is a unique canyon, not because of the sport, which only has 4 rappels, the rest are skills and a beautiful crossing. The environment is unbeatable and after rains it is a canyon to do yes or yes.
Hydrology: (machine translated) Yes, along one of the old trails that went down to the riverbed.
Access: (machine translated) Getting to the Anaga area on the TF12 road At p.k. 23.5 we have the detour by the TF143 towards Los Batanes, after one kilometer we turn right to continue to Los Batanes. Then we leave the Bejia turnoff to the left to finally park in Batán de Abajo, just at the entrance.
Approach: (machine translated) By the PR-TF11 or by the path of the Cueva del Lino, in both options we end up in the riverbed and we will have to follow it to the first rappel.
Tour: Ver topo
Return: (machine translated) When we arrive at the construction of the Casa del Tomadero, a few meters before, we have on the left the sign of the road of the same name that indicates the ascent to Batán.
