Summary: (machine translated)
Dry canyon, for beginners, with hardware installations.

Hydrology:
Si

Access: (machine translated)
We must be located in Villa de Ves
We will follow the road that goes down to the Molinar reservoir, cross it through the tunnel and continue along this track.
If we have two cars, we will take the track of the old Molinar Hostel and we will follow it until we cannot continue.
With the access car or a single car we will continue along the previous track going up the horseshoes, we will pass the Molinar parking lot, past this we will have to take a detour to the left to go east following the Júcar. 4km after leaving the detour of the hostel we will arrive at a dry riverbed which is our ravine. It is just a sharp right turn to the south with the riverbed on the left.

Approach: (machine translated)
Immediately, down to the riverbed

Tour: (machine translated)
Good views and easy rappels, perfect for beginners.

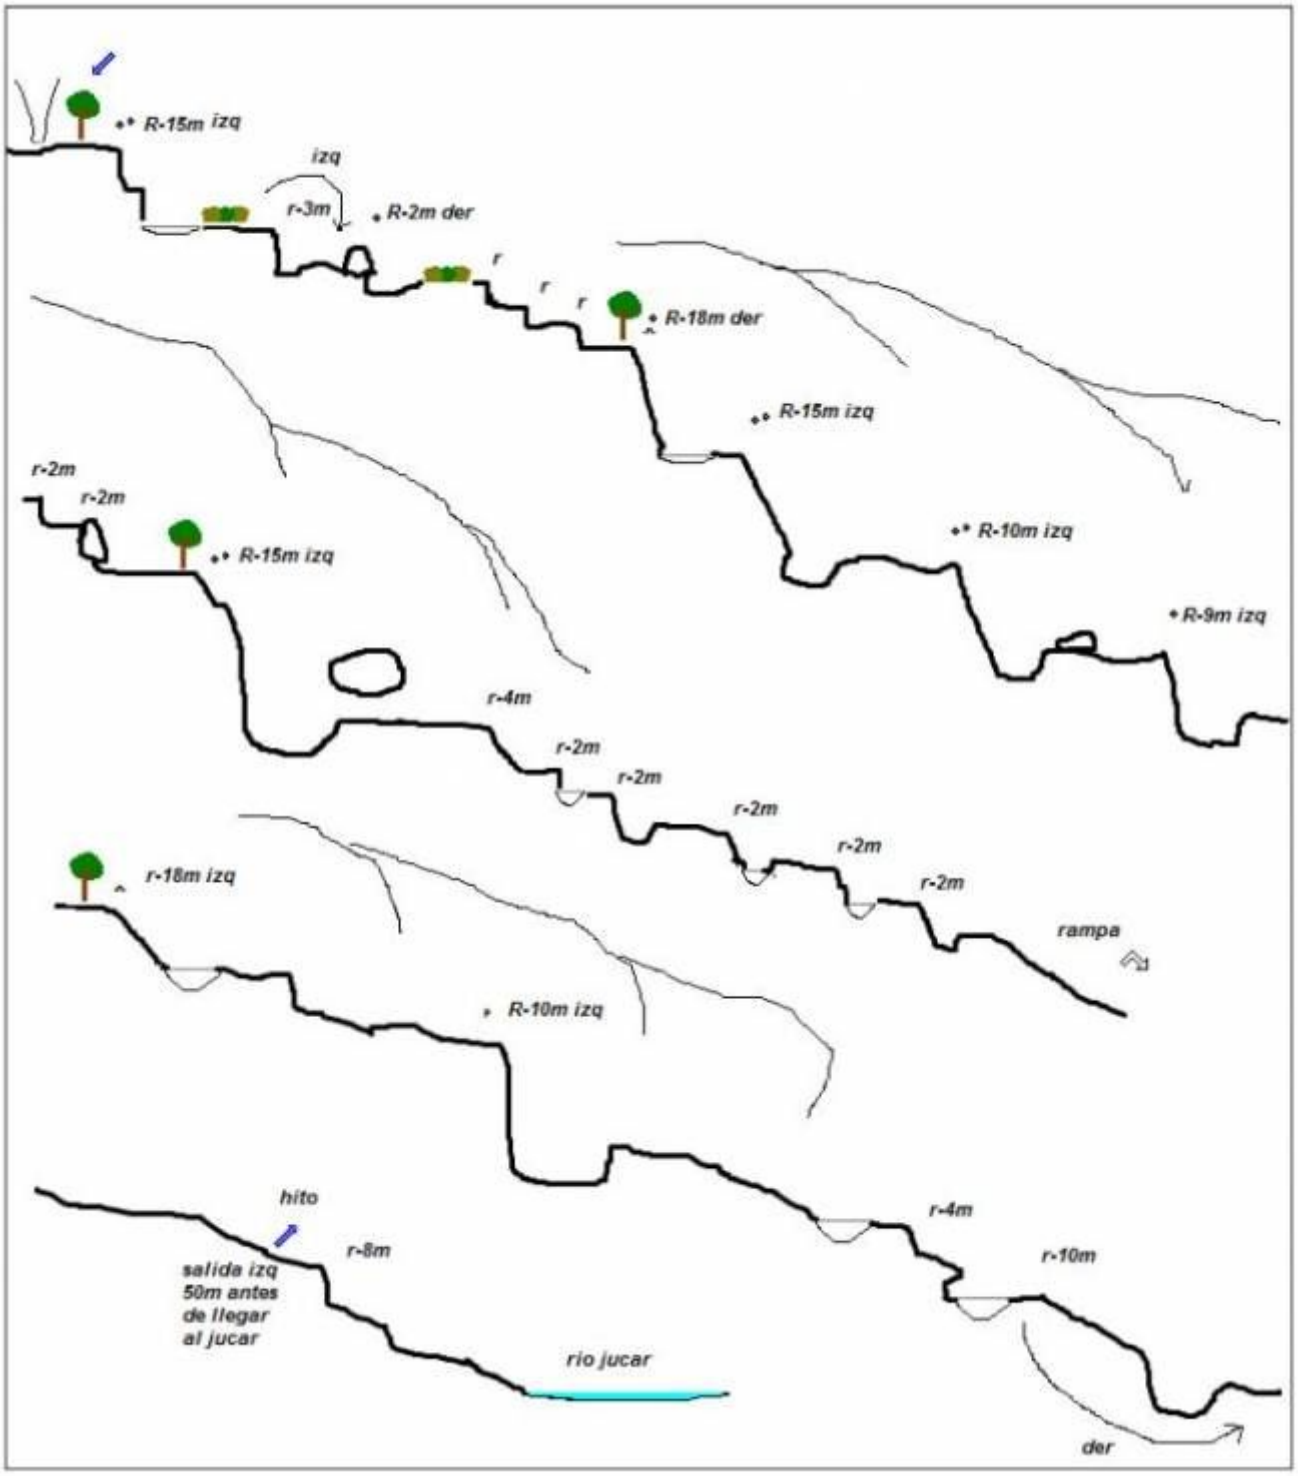

Return: (machine translated)
Before the last cliff there is a milestone on the left to take the return path. We will pass the old hydroelectric plant and here there are two options:
On the right towards the track of the access car.
To the left a path that goes up to the access track.

Coordinates:
Canyon Start 39.2099 -1.2490
