Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Short and simple canyon, although aesthetically very interesting. Neighbor of Aguaré with which it can be combined in the day. In summer it dries out

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Not very clear but it is very short and there will hardly be any problems.

Access: (machine translated)
Take the N330 from Jaca towards France. We will go up towards the Pto de Somport until we reach Canfranc village (not station) and just at the entrance we will park.

Approach: (machine translated)
In front of the park at the entrance of the village there is a path marked as GR 11.1 we will go up to the track that goes up to Gabardito. Soon we cross the stream

Tour: (machine translated)
Its only problem is how short it is and that in summer it dries out. For the rest it is totally recommendable

Return: (machine translated)
Once we reach the retaining wall, we will have the uphill path to our right.
