Specialities:
Gear: Ropes: 2x60m
Summary: Deep and narrow canyon in the first part - afterwards more open - no escapes.
Hydrology:
Access: The road to reach the canyon is gravel road. A lot of gravel. Good to have 4x4 wheel drive. But is doable also without, just go slowly.
Approach: Follow the hiking path from the parking river right up to 1740m and go into the river. Follow the river and you will reach the canyon.
Tour: First 6 waterfalls are inside the deep and narrow part. After that the canyon opens, but still no escapes. Be careful on a 50m waterfall, since you abseil in the water course and there can be some falling rocks when you abseil. Last waterfall you can do as a double or triple pitch (anchors on the right - second anchor hard to reach). 2x60m ropes needed
Return: From the canyon just follow the river bed to the car.

2025-09-20   Tjaz   ★★★★★   📖 ★   📍 ★★   🌊 High   🍃 Completed All anchor points were in good shape. Water level was perfect. The big waterfall you abseil in the water course, its a little bit hard to abseil in water course. Also be careful because during the abseil the rocks were falling. I got one on my hand, the other guide on his knee. Maybe clean the waterfall before start abseiling.
