Specialities:

Gear:

Summary: (machine translated)
Simple and short canyon to make a morning or afternoon and combine with any of the area.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
At all times. It is not a boxed descent and also crosses two tracks to leave quietly.

Access: (machine translated)
On the N623 towards the Puerto del Escudo.
After passing Entrambasmestas, after a few kilometers, a detour to the left to Bo Herreria and Sel del Ceo. We cross the bridge, leave the neighborhood behind and at the first turn to the right we have room to park. Here we will leave the ravine.
If we want to combine cars we can go up to Sel del Ceo with the access car and we take 25min of road.

Approach: (machine translated)
We go up the track to Sel del Ceo. Here the track as such ends and the path begins with a turn to the left. We follow it for a hundred meters and at the next fork to the left. We will see that the path already goes straight to the stream. Just before reaching it, it turns right to climb parallel to the stream, we follow it and at the end of this slope we get into the river.

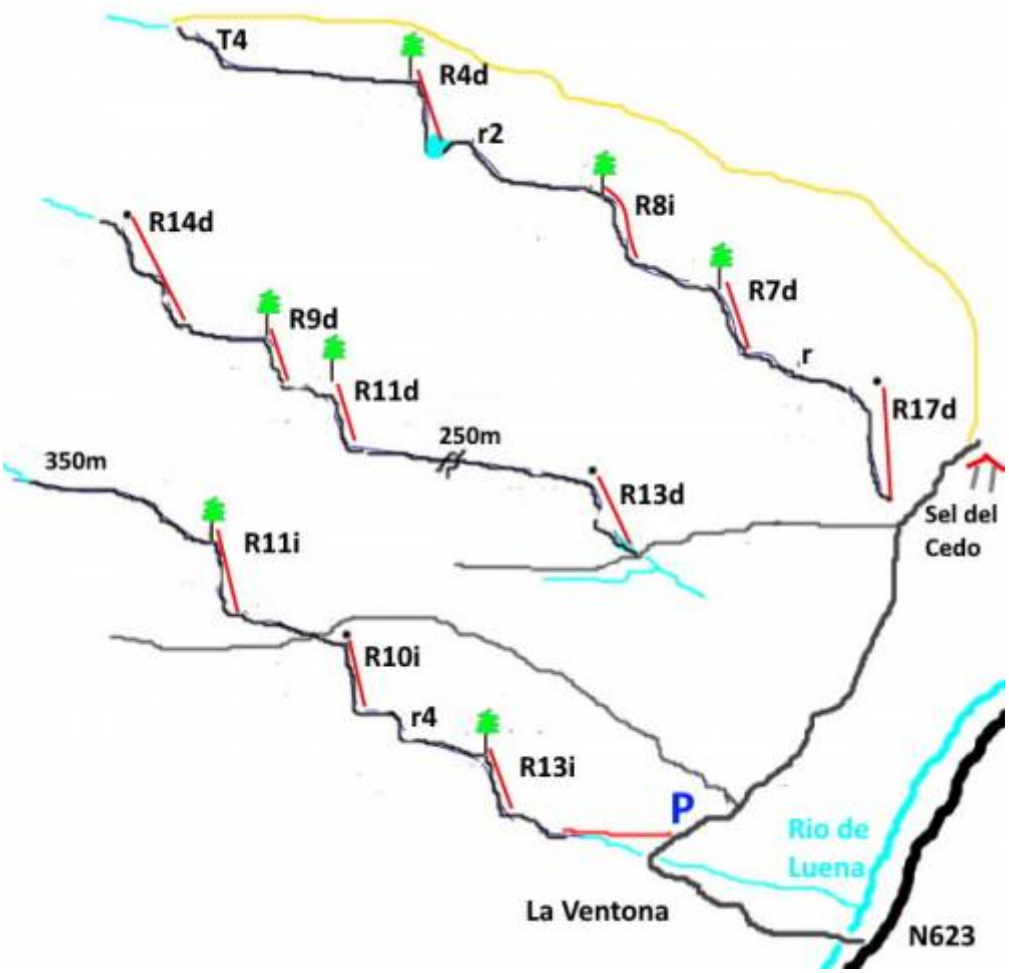

Tour: (machine translated)
Nice descent with small waterfalls and rappels. The low flow will not allow us great luxuries of jumps or strong emotions but some of its rappels are very aesthetic.

Return: (machine translated)
After the last rappel we will see the trail on our left.
