Summary: (machine translated)
Also known as Zorrate or Lautxunaga.
Short canyon, entertaining with good flow and with a wonderful final waterfall. If we access by the stream of Hiriberri we will add one more rappel to the sketch of about 5m.
To catch it with good flow you have to go in the rainy season, but be careful with the narrow areas!

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Yes, between R1 and R2 through the forest.

Access: (machine translated)
On the N135 towards Roncesvalles, at km 42.6 we turn right to Isaba on the NA140.
We will follow this road until we pass Aribe, just at the exit of the village we have the detour to the left to Hiriberri by the NA2023. We will go along this road just 2kms, after the kilometer point we have a left curve and a place on the right to park.

Approach: (machine translated)
A few meters beyond the bend the PR to Garaioa comes out, we will go down it to a footbridge over the stream of Hiriberri. We can enter here or follow the trail 10min more to the footbridge over Arteki. If we access by Hiriberri we will do one more rappel.

Tour: (machine translated) see sketch

Return: (machine translated)
After the magnificent waterfall at the end, we will see a rocky area on the right and the road up there, we will go up the best way we can.
