Summary: (machine translated)
Very simple canyon, with only 2 rappels, the long one is also a ramp. Ideal for spring, when there is still water, to enjoy its formations. The rest of the time it can be with marmitas with rotten water.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Not verified

Access: (machine translated)
On the N260 between Pont de Suert and La Pobla de Segur, at the height of Senterada we turn off on the L503 to Torre de Cabdella.
We will pass the Pobleta de Belvei up to p.k. 5, where we will find space on both sides of the road to park.
With the access car, we go back to the p.k. 2, where we have the detour to the right to Estavill, go up, cross it and park at the exit of the village.

Approach: (machine translated)
We return to get into the village and, in the curve, we will leave towards the east by a path not very marked. The access is not very clear but following the descent in an easterly direction we will arrive at a tributary and from there, at the moment we arrive at ours.

Tour: (machine translated)
Quite fattening descent, with nice formations, a few cliffs and only 2 rappels. No major attraction

Return: (machine translated)
When the ravine opens we will arrive at the Flamisell, we will have to cross it and go up a small path to a small dam, there we can go up to the road. We will have the car next to
