Summary: (machine translated)
Nice ravine, not very aquatic, which is gaining in importance as we advance through it, until we reach its flying rappels.

Hydrology: (machine translated)
Throughout most of the route

Access: (machine translated)
Access to Vega de Pas area
We must arrive to Vega de Pas. From the N623 in Entrambasmestas we will take the CA263.
Ajam, Ajam Sup, Peñallana, Hormaza, Yera and Yera 2 ravines.
Arriving at Vega de Pas we turn right to Puerto de Estacas de Trueba on the CA631. We will pass Yera and at km 7 approx. we have a first bridge over the river (exit Yera 1). We continue along the road and at the second bridge we leave the car to return or if we only have one. From here we can observe the descent.
We continue along the road until the next sharp left turn, here comes a track to the cabins of Hormaza, we parked the access car.

Approach: (machine translated)
With two cars it is almost immediate, before crossing the stream we turn right diagonally to look for the riverbed and the first rappel.
If we go with only one car we will have to go up by the road the 3 kms or by a side of the ravine looking for the best way.

Tour: (machine translated)
Open and not very aquatic but very entertaining. Its most vertical part is a delight

Return: (machine translated)
