Summary: (machine translated)
Forest canyon, partly muddy, with panoramic descent down to Lago di Mezzola

Hydrology:

Access: (machine translated)
Coming from Chavenna or Lecco, Sondrio, we cross the Fiume Mera on the SS340dir at the extreme northern foothills of Lago di Como. Immediately after the bridge we turn right, but then we do not take the road to Dascio on the right, but we go up on the left to Albonico (5.9 km to the church). From the church we go uphill in Albonico for another 140 m in a northerly direction and then we can park our car on the left at the edge of the woods.

Approach: (machine translated)
We follow the sign "S. Fedelino" and in a few minutes we arrive at the bridge over "our" stream (entry on the right below the bridge).

Tour: (machine translated)
First, two rappels of 28m and 31m, then forest canyon to the two footbridges. Then the attractive descent down to the lake.

Return: (machine translated)
Climb up without a path on the left (about 140 meters of altitude), after reaching the path turn left and climb up to Albonico.\nAlternatively, you can swim across the lake along the right shore,\npass some houses on the shore and get off at a rocky plate that juts out a bit into the lake. A small path leads up to a house (private property). From here, follow the path or tarred road up to Albonico.
