Summary:

Short stream in a beautiful wild environment and sea view. Good for when you just want a short easily accessible canyon.

Hydrology:

Access:

Follow the northern coastal road until the intersection for Therma. Turn uphill and continue towards Therma for about 600 m, until you reach the thermal establishment. Turn right onto the dirt road just before the establishment. Continue for 200 m until the first hairpin bend on the left. Park here. If a 4WD vehicle is available, it is possible to shorten the approach by 45 minutes by driving along the entire dirt road to the start of the path signed with blue marks.

Approach:

Continue uphill on the dirt road for about 2 km, passing the antennas on the right and going left at the next forks, until the end of the road. Take the obvious uphill path indicated by the blue marks and E6 signage. Cross the small tributary that you meet after 300 m. Enter the riverbed and walk briefly to the first rappel.

Tour:

Five easy rappels. The third could be a toboggan.

Return:

After the last rappel with a hanging pool, the stream widens, becomes flat and enters some trees. On the left bank you can see a trail going uphill. Take the track, which leads back to the approaching path.
