Access:

Approach: (machine translated)

At the turn-off to the houses, walk down the slope and follow the streambed to the canyon. 10 min.

Tour: (machine translated)

It starts dry with a few steps to downclimb, then you reach the first belay on the right. Approx. 15 m. Some dry rappels follow, through a rock arch, a grotto. This is followed by the highest rappel at 35 m and a few pools that only make the rope massive. Then some rappels with water.

Return: (machine translated)

You can park at the canyon exit. Or you can hitch a ride to Upper Snake Canyon.

Starts dry and has some pools further down, which are still quite clear. Wonderfully narrow canyon with beautiful tufa formations, a small grotto and a very nice ambience overall. (machine translated)
