Summary: (machine translated)
Unfrequented canyon of the Alt Urgell guide, it allows us a different access to the Forat del Buli. Impressive and spectacular tend to be the two most repeated adjectives of this access, with several rappels but little runoff except in the rainy season and, especially after rains. Access and returns similar to the Buli.

Access: (machine translated)
We will be located in Ponts on the C14. At the exit traffic circle towards La Seu de Urgel/Andorra, take the C1412b towards Tremp.
We will take the local road to Cristofol and Puig de Rialb (we will see a sign indicating the Rialb river and the Forat de Buli at 17km). We will follow the signs to the Forat and the Rialb river. After those 17kms we will see an esplanade with a track on the right where to park. Here we leave the return car or if we only have one car.
With two cars we will continue along the small road, passing a hill with the remains of a hermitage and the Foradot oxbow, the next oxbow is Cerdanyes and after a little while the road ends and becomes a track, we will look for a place to park before reaching the track. The best place is a left curve where the road begins to descend with views of the entire valley of Rialb, on the right there is a small esplanade perfect (3.5kms from the return car).

Tour: (machine translated)
A more open first part gives way to the next part in which the descent is canyoning to go down to the Rialb river.

Return: (machine translated)
Along the Rialb river and the Forat del Buli (See description of this descent).
