Nice open canyon with easy access. Double anchors everywhere, good grip on the rock Anchor at rappel 3 rather unfortunate, we had problems pulling it off (climbed back up and chose a small tree). At the last 55m stand an anchor would not be bad, especially if it should be slippery. Description will be adapted in the next few days (traducción alternativa)

Automatisch importiert von Descente-Canyon.com für Canyon Foppiano Amarrages en très bon état, double points non reliés. On a échoué à ne pas sursauter lors des tirs de mine de la carrière très proche. Vraiment très beau granit sculpté.
