Automatisch importiert von Descente-Canyon.com für Canyon Gei Conditions assez fraîches et niveau d'eau assez sportif, certains bassins tournent vigoureusement. L'avant-dernière cascade est le point fort de la descente. Le C45 est extrêmement impressionnant vu d'en haut, mais quand on sait qu'une étroite bande passe sous le geyser et qu'on peut atteindre un ancrage juste après le geyser en descendant en rappel, ce passage est facile à maîtriser. Last part of the access very exposed in places. Beautiful canyon. Mostly only single pitons. Quite cold water at this time of year. (traducción alternativa)

Please fill each car completely to avoid congestions in the parking lots, use alternative parking, be quiet, limit whistle signals in the canyon, respect local catholic culture by not undressing visibly and use clothing for ascent. Nice tour, water level quite low but still OK. At the high waterfall use the intermediate level on the right. (traducción alternativa)
