| Résumé: (traduction alternative)Dry ravine that forces us to make a combination of cars, check that the level of the reservoir is not too high to walk across the bridge, or otherwise swim across. Perhaps too much effort for what it provides.One of the cars from El Oro and the other from Cortes de Pallas.   |   |   |
| Hydrologie: (traduction alternative)After the second rappel   |   |   |
| Accès: (traduction alternative)We must be located between El Oro and Cortes de Pallás, which we will reach by the CV428.On the CV428 going down to Cortes, just past pk11 there is a road to the left to "Salto de Cortes II", we pass the heliport and at the next detour we take the track on the left, we will continue along this track to the tubes. Here we leave the car to return.About 200m from the village of Cortes there is a track on the left (Otonel sign) by which we will go about 6kms to the Peñas del Pastor. Here we park the access car. |   |   |
| Approche: (traduction alternative)Immediately, go down to the riverbed.   |   |   |
| Tour: (traduction alternative)Descent that gradually closes until reaching the R40. Here we can leave in search of the path or do the last rappel with water from the spring.   |   |   |
| Retour: (traduction alternative)To the left towards the tunnels and old road. When we reach the bridge we will cross it and on the other bank we will continue for a couple of minutes more to the pipes.In case the level of the reservoir is high, we will have to swim across the reservoir to the opposite shore passing over the bridge, etc.  |   |   |
